

The Art of Direct Resin

Course Preparation Kit

Course Introduction

The Art of Direct Resin course has been designed to teach dentists how to practice minimally invasive, more aesthetic dentistry. Dr. Ronald Jackson illustrates simple, conservative techniques that can be applied in your practice to enhance your patients' smiles and achieve outstanding results. The three-day course will emphasize the artistic and advanced skills to create restoratively sound and natural looking anterior composite resin restorations. In this course you will compare and contrast the different composite systems available in the marketplace and the essential features of naturally shaded composite systems, and you will gain an understanding of the stratification of opacity to achieve natural restorations.

A note from the instructor:

Dear Doctor,

I am looking forward to your attendance at my course: Giving Your Patients Something to Smile About: The Art of Direct Resin to be held at the Las Vegas Institute for Advanced Dental Studies.

Today's patients want their dentistry more aesthetic and less invasive – direct resin does both. I compliment you on your commitment to continuing education and want you to know I have designed this course as practical, “apply Monday morning” material.

Further, the increase in your skills and your confidence in expanding the use of direct resin services in your practice will be evident before you leave Las Vegas.

A schedule is enclosed. You only need to bring magnification, any favorite instruments you may have for placing composite resin, a sense of humor and a desire to learn. We'll take care of the rest. See you at LVI.

Regards,
